

Charter Case Studies – Class Scenarios

CASE 1:

A hospital board dismisses a nurse who because of her belief as a Jehovah's Witness, refuses to administer blood transfusions.

CASE 2:

A sixteen year old student feels that she is fully aware of the all the issues in the upcoming election and wants to vote. The government refuses to allow her to vote because she needs to be 18 to vote.

CASE 3:

A principal of an elementary school tells a female applicant that he will only hire male teachers to teach a “tough” grade 8 class.