

Canadian Citizen's Rights and Responsibilities

RIGHTS

- basic human rights
- legal rights
- equality rights
- right to public education
- mobility rights (live where you choose)
- freedom of thought
- freedom of speech
- freedom of religion
- the right to peaceful assembly (protest)
- freedom of association
- apply for a passport
- leave and return to the country
- run in elections
- vote in elections

RESPONSIBILITIES

- obey Canada's laws
- pay taxes
- to vote in municipal, provincial, and federal elections
- understand your rights
- to express opinions freely, while respecting the rights of others
- to help others in the community
- be productive in society
- to care for and protect our heritage and environment
- to eliminate discrimination and injustice